Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

To Whom It May Concern:

Constangy, Brooks, Smith & Prophete, LLP represents Spokane Produce in connection with a recent data security incident described in greater detail below. The purpose of this letter is to notify you of the incident in accordance with Washington's data breach notification statute.

Nature of the Security Incident

On or around July 22, 2025, Spokane Produce discovered evidence that it had experienced a network disruption and immediately initiated an investigation of the matter. Spokane Produce engaged independent cybersecurity experts to assist with the process. As a result of the investigation, Spokane Produce determined that certain files may have been acquired without authorization. Spokane Produce undertook a review of those files and, on or about September 19, 2025, determined that certain personal information was contained within the potentially affected data. Spokane Produce then promptly took steps to identify address information and effectuate notice to potentially impacted individuals.

The personal information potentially impacted as a result of this incident varied per individual but included Washington residents' names, dates of birth, driver's license numbers, and Social Security numbers.

Number of Washington Residents Notified

On October 6, 2025 with the assistance of a third-party vendor, Spokane Produce notified approximately 788 Washington residents of this incident via U.S. First-Class Mail. A sample copy of the notification letter sent to the potentially impacted individual(s) is included with this correspondence.

Steps Taken to Address the Incident

In response to the incident, Spokane Produce has provided potentially impacted individuals with information about steps that they can take to help protect their information, and, out of an abundance of caution, has offered such individuals complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services through Epiq Global. This includes 12 months of credit and dark web monitoring, a $1,000,000 insurance reimbursement policy, and fully managed identity theft recovery services. Additionally, to help reduce the risk of a similar future incident, Spokane Produce has implemented additional technical security measures throughout the environment.

Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Personal Information

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”).

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You also can contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

Equifax

P.O. Box 105851
Atlanta, GA 30348
1-800-525-6285
www.equifax.com

Experian

P.O. Box 9532
Allen, TX 75013
1-888-397-3742
www.experian.com

TransUnion

P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19016
1-800-916-8800
www.transunion.com

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least one year. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at www.annualcreditreport.com.

Security Freeze: You have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file for up to one year at no cost. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC, or from your respective state Attorney General about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state.
