Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

To Whom It May Concern:

We represent Foley & Lardner LLP (“Foley”), located at 777 E. Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, WI 53202, and are writing to notify your office of an incident that may affect the security of certain personal information relating to approximately 8 Maine residents. This notice may be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, Foley does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maine law, the applicability of the Maine data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

1. Nature of the Data Event

On or around April 28, 2025, Foley became aware of a phishing incident involving a single individual associated with the firm. Upon discovery, Foley immediately took steps to address the issue, including engaging a team of external cybersecurity specialists, implementing a forced password reset, notifying the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and initiating a comprehensive investigation. The investigation determined that a limited amount of information may have been accessed or acquired without authorization between April 17, 2025 and April 22, 2025. Foley thereafter undertook a comprehensive review to determine whether personal information was contained in the affected files, the individuals to whom the information pertained, and the addresses for these individuals. This process was completed on December 18, 2025. Please note that Foley has no evidence of the misuse, or attempted misuse, of any potentially impacted information.

The information that was subject to unauthorized access or acquisition includes first and last name, as well as Social Security number.

2. Notice to the Maine Residents

On or about December 23, 2025 Foley provided written notice of this incident to approximately 8 Maine residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached herein.

3. Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the incident, Foley moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident and identify potentially affected individuals. Further, Foley notified the Federal Bureau of Investigation regarding the incident. Foley also implemented additional safeguards and training to its employees. Foley is offering access to credit monitoring services for 12 months, dark web monitoring, a $1 million identity fraud loss reimbursement policy, and fully managed identity theft recovery services through IDX to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals.

Additionally, Foley is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud, including advising individuals to report any suspected incidents of identity theft or fraud to their credit card company and/or bank. Foley is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

4. Contact Information

Should you have any questions regarding this notification or other aspects of the data security incident, please contact us at 917.414.8991.

Very truly yours,

Re: Notice of Data <<Variable Data 2>>

Dear << First Name>> << Last Name>>:

Foley & Lardner LLP (“Foley”) is a law firm that provides services for various clients. As such, Foley holds certain personal data relating to client matters. Foley is writing to notify you of a data security incident which involved your personal information. We take the privacy and security of all information within our possession very seriously. Please read this letter carefully as it contains information regarding the incident and information about steps that you can take to help protect your information.

What Happened? On April 28, 2025, Foley became aware of a suspicious event that may have involved potential unauthorized access to certain data. We promptly initiated an investigation with the assistance of external cybersecurity specialists. Based on the investigation, we determined that a limited subset of files may have been accessed or acquired without authorization. As part of our investigation, we retained external data specialists to conduct a comprehensive review of the potential affected files to identify any personal information. That review concluded on December 18, 2025, at which time we determined that that some of your personal information was contained within the affected files. Please note that we have no evidence of the misuse of any potentially impacted information since the time of the incident.

What Information was Involved? The information included your name as well as your <<Variable Data Elements>>.

What Are We Doing? As soon as we discovered this incident, we took the steps described above and implemented measures to enhance security and minimize the risk of a similar incident occurring in the future. We also notified the Federal Bureau of Investigation and will cooperate with any resulting investigation. We are offering you complimentary identity protection services through IDX, a leader in consumer identity protection. These services include <<12 / 24>> months of credit monitoring¹, dark web monitoring, a $1 million identity fraud loss reimbursement policy, and fully managed identity theft recovery services. The deadline to enroll in these services is March 23, 2026.

What You Can Do. You can follow the recommendations on the following page to help protect your personal information. You can also enroll in the complimentary services offered to you through IDX by using the enrollment code provided above.

¹ To receive credit monitoring services, you must be over the age of 18 and have established credit in the U.S., have a Social Security number in your name, and have a U.S. residential address associated with your credit file.

For More Information. Further information about how to protect your personal information appears on the following page. If you have questions or need assistance, please call 1-833-353-6501. We take your trust in us and this matter very seriously. We regret any worry or inconvenience this may cause.

Sincerely,
Joe Edmondson
Privacy Officer

Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Personal Information

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”).

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com/, calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You also can contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

Equifax

P.O. Box 105851
Atlanta, GA 30348
1-800-525-6285
www.equifax.com

Experian

P.O. Box 9532
Allen, TX 75013
1-888-397-3742
www.experian.com

TransUnion

P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19016
1-833-799-5355
www.transunion.com/get-credit-report

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least one year. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at www.annualcreditreport.com. For TransUnion: www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts.

Security Freeze: You have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file for up to one year at no cost. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement. For TransUnion: www.transunion.com/credit-freeze.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC, or from your respective state Attorney General about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state.
