Nature of the Data Event

On or about September 2, 2025, Diamond Chemical discovered suspicious activity on certain systems in our environment that led to a temporary network disruption. In response, Diamond Chemical promptly began an investigation with the assistance of third-party specialists to determine what occurred. The investigation determined that an unauthorized actor accessed certain systems between July 26, 2025, and September 2, 2025, and copied some files without permission. Diamond Chemical then undertook a thorough review of the files to determine if they contained any sensitive information, to whom that information related, and to confirm address information for those individuals. This review was completed on March 6, 2026. We have no indications that the potentially impacted information was subject to actual or attempted identity theft or fraud.

The information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes name and Social Security Number.

Notice to Maine Resident

On or about May 5, 2026, Diamond Chemical provided written notice of this incident to one (1) Maine resident. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, Diamond Chemical moved quickly to limit the suspicious activity, investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of Diamond Chemical systems, and identify potentially affected individuals. Further, Diamond Chemical notified federal law enforcement regarding the event. Diamond Chemical is also reviewing its protocol, policies, and procedures in an attempt to reduce the likelihood of a similar event reoccurring. Diamond Chemical is providing access to credit monitoring services for twelve (12) months, through Kroll, to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals.

Additionally, Diamond Chemical is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud. ### Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
