Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear [REDACTED]:

Hematology Oncology Consultants (“HOC”) is writing to inform you of a recent incident that may have involved your personal information. We take the privacy and security of all information within our possession very seriously. Please read this letter carefully as it contains information regarding the incident and steps that you may choose to take to help protect your personal information.

What Happened? On or about February 12, 2026, HOC learned that files containing personally-identifiable information were likely the subject of unauthorized acquisition as the result of a cybersecurity attack on HOC’s network on or about September 20, 2025. Upon learning of the incident, we promptly took steps to secure the digital environment and launched an investigation with the assistance of cyber specialists. We undertook a comprehensive review of the relevant data to identify the individuals and information involved, and, on or about February 12, 2026, learned that some of your personal information was contained within the potentially affected information. We thereafter took steps to locate updated address information to notify you as quickly as possible. This process was completed on April 7, 2026.

What Information Was Involved? The information involved included your name in combination with your

What We Are Doing. As soon as we discovered the incident, we took the steps described above. We have also implemented additional measures to further harden our environment and reduce the likelihood of a similar event occurring in the future and notified potentially impacted individuals.

What You Can Do. You can follow the recommendations on the following page to help protect your personal information.

For More Information. Additional information about how to protect your personal information appears on the following page. If you have questions or need assistance, please call 855-954-9214 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

Sincerely,

Hematology Oncology Consultants

Steps You Can Take To Help Protect Your Personal Information

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC").

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com/, calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You also can contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

Equifax
P.O. Box 105851
Atlanta, GA 30348
1-800-525-6285
www.equifax.com

Experian
P.O. Box 9532
Allen, TX 75013
1-888-397-3742
www.experian.com

TransUnion
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19016
1-833-799-5355
www.transunion.com/get-credit-report

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least one year. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at www.annualcreditreport.com. For TransUnion: www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts.

Security Freeze: You have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file for up to one year at no cost. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement. For TransUnion: www.transunion.com/credit-freeze.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC, or from your respective state Attorney General about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state.
