Dear Sample A. Sample:

Walker Accounting & Tax Service (“Walker”) is writing to notify you of an incident that may affect the privacy of some of your information. Due to requirements imposed by Massachusetts law, we are unable to provide you with the details about the nature of this incident. Nevertheless, we are providing you with access to resources to protect against the possibility of misuse of your information should you feel it appropriate to do so. Walker treats its responsibility to safeguard information as an utmost priority. Out of an abundance of caution, we are offering you access to credit monitoring and identity restoration services through Experian for twenty-four (24) months at no cost to you. To enroll in these services, please follow the steps below.

Protect Your Tax Returns

You can contact the IRS at www.irs.gov/Individuals/Identity-Protection for helpful information and guidance on steps you can take to prevent a fraudulent tax return from being filed in your name and what to do if you become the victim of such fraud. You can also visit www.irs.gov/uac/Taxpayer-Guide-to-Identity-Theft for more information. You should also look to the information made available by the tax authority for your state of residence and any other state where you file a tax return. For a list of websites for each US state’s tax authority, visit <https://taxadmin.org/fta-members/>.

To enhance protections, we encourage you to obtain an Identity Protection PIN (“IP PIN”) from the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) so that your tax return may not be filed without such PIN.

The fastest way to receive an IP PIN is to request one through an online account. If you do not already have an account on IRS.gov, you must create one. Steps to obtain an IP PIN, along with additional information, is available at <https://www.irs.gov/identity-theft-fraud-scams/get-an-identity-protection-pin>.

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer's express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information, depending on whether you make the request online, by phone, or by mail:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.);
7. Social Security Card, pay stub, or W2;
8. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
