Dear [REDACTED]:

UBEO Midco LLC (“UBEO”) is writing to inform you of an event that involved certain information related to you. This letter provides you with additional measures you can take to help protect your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so. Due to requirements imposed by Massachusetts law, we are unable to provide further details about the nature of this event, but you may obtain additional information by calling our dedicated assistance line provided at the end of this letter.

The confidentiality, privacy, and security of personal information within our care are among UBEO’s highest priorities. As an added precaution, UBEO is offering you immediate access to complimentary single bureau credit monitoring and fraud assistance for twenty-four (24) months from the date of enrollment, at no cost to you through Cyberscout, a TransUnion company. You can find information below on how to enroll in these services. We encourage you to enroll yourself in these services as we are not able to do so on your behalf.

Enroll in Monitoring Services

To enroll in Credit Monitoring services at no charge, please log on to <https://bfs.cyberscout.com/activate> and follow the instructions provided. When prompted please provide the following unique code to receive services: [REDACTED]. In order for you to receive the monitoring services described above, you must enroll within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter. The enrollment requires an internet connection and e-mail account and may not be available to minors under eighteen (18) years of age. Please note that when signing up for monitoring services, you may be asked to verify personal information for your own protection to confirm your identity.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information, depending on whether you make the request online, by phone, or by mail:

Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);

0. Social Security number;
1. Date of birth;
2. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
3. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
4. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.);
5. Social Security Card, pay stub, or W2;
6. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Under Massachusetts law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it.

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

We understand that you may have questions about this event that are not addressed in this letter. If you have additional questions, please call our dedicated assistance line at [REDACTED] from 8:00am - 8:00pm, Eastern Time, Monday through Friday, excluding major U.S. holidays.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience or concern this event may cause you. Protecting your information is very important to UBEO and we remain committed to safeguarding the information in our care.

Sincerely,

UBEO Midco LLC
