RE: Important Security Notification. Please read this entire letter.

Dear [First Name] [Last Name]:

Frederick Goldman, Inc. recently discovered an incident that may affect the security of your personal information. We want to provide you with information about the incident, steps we are taking in response, and steps you may take to guard against identity theft and fraud, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

What Happened? During the month of June, the computer systems were infiltrated by a third party.

What Information Was Involved? We have identified that files containing W-2 information fell into the hands of a third party and such information included names, social security numbers, remuneration and addresses. Although we believe there is a low risk of this information being abused, out of an abundance of caution, we have hired Experian to help us navigate what should be done. Unfortunately, cyberattacks have become a fact of life for organizations of every size and in every industry, and no company is immune.

What We Are Doing? We take the protection of your personal information seriously and are taking steps to prevent a similar occurrence.

Upon discovery of the incident, FGI took the following immediate and ongoing actions:

- Immediately engaged a qualified cybersecurity incident response firm to contain the breach, conduct forensic analysis, preserve evidence, and restore affected systems;
- Retained outside legal counsel with cybersecurity and data privacy expertise to oversee and manage the Company's legal obligations;
- Is offering you [12] months of complimentary credit monitoring and identity theft protection services through Experian Identity Works, at no cost to you, including $1,000,000 in identity theft insurance;

FREDERICK GOLDMAN INC.

- Is advising you to place credit freezes at all three major credit bureaus and to enroll in the IRS Identity Protection PIN program as additional protective measures
