Subject: Notice of Data [Extra1]

Dear Sample A. Sample:

Christina Development Corporation (“CDC”) is writing to inform you of a recent data security incident that may have affected your personal information. We take the privacy and security of all information within our possession very seriously. Please read this letter carefully as it contains information regarding the incident and steps that you can take to help protect your personal information.

What Happened. On or about September 20, 2025, CDC experienced a network disruption and promptly initiated an investigation of the matter. We also engaged cybersecurity specialists and legal counsel to assist with the process. As a result of the investigation, on or about March 4, 2026, we determined that certain files were acquired without authorization. We then undertook a comprehensive review of those files and, on or about June 29, 2026, learned that some of your personal information was contained within the potentially affected data which is the reason for this notification.

What Information Was Involved. The information may have included your first and last name as well as [Extra3].

What We Are Doing. As soon as CDC learned of this incident, CDC took the steps described above and implemented measures to enhance security and minimize the risk of a similar incident occurring in the future. In response to this event, CDC notified law enforcement and will cooperate with any resulting investigation. CDC is also offering you complimentary Identity Restoration and protection services through Experian IdentityWorksSM [Extra2] months.

What You Can Do. If you have questions about the product, need assistance with Identity Restoration that may have arose as a result of this incident, or would like an alternative to enrolling in Experian IdentityWorksSM online, please contact Experian’s customer care team by October 31, 2026, at 833-931-4455, Monday - Friday, 8 am - 8 pm Central Time (excluding major U.S. holidays). Be prepared to provide engagement number [Engagement Number] as proof of eligibility for the Identity Restoration services by Experian. You can also follow the recommendations on the following page to help protect your personal information

For More Information. Further information about how to protect your personal information appears on the following page. We take your trust in us and this matter very seriously. Please accept our sincere apologies for any worry or inconvenience this may cause.

Sincerely,

Christina Development Corporation

Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Personal Information

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”).

Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.consumer.ftc.gov, www.ftc.gov/idtheft.

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You also can contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

Equifax

P.O. Box 105851
Atlanta, GA 30348
1-800-525-6285
www.equifax.com

Experian

P.O. Box 9532
Allen, TX 75013
1-888-397-3742
www.experian.com

TransUnion

P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19016
1-800-916-8800
www.transunion.com/get-credit-report

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least one year. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at www.annualcreditreport.com.

Security Freeze: You have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file for up to one year at no cost. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC, or from your respective state Attorney General about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state.
