Re: Notice of Data Security Event

Dear ,

We are writing to inform you of a recent data security event at Glendale Obstetrics & Gynecology (“Glendale”) that may have involved your personal information. We take the privacy and security of your information seriously. That is why we are notifying you of the incident and the steps you can take to help protect your information.

What Happened. On October 25, 2025, Glendale experienced a security incident involving a portion of our digital environment. In response, we took steps to secure our environment and launched an investigation to determine the cause of the incident. As a result, we learned that certain files were acquired by unauthorized individuals. We are working to determine the nature of the information that was involved and the information pertained. We then worked to identify and notify potentially impacted individuals. This process was ongoing and we are diligently providing notice to you as quickly as possible.

What Information Was Involved. The information involved in this incident includes:

What We Are Doing. As soon as we learned of the incident, we took steps to secure our environment and implemented additional security features to reduce the risk of a similar incident occurring in the future. We are also providing you with information on how you can protect your information.

Additionally, we are offering you the opportunity to obtain a credit report and a credit freeze.
