Re: Notice of a Data Breach

Dear Sample A. Sample:

Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, LLP ("Fragomen"), a global immigration services firm, takes the privacy and security of our clients very seriously. As such, we are writing to notify you of a cybersecurity incident that we identified and addressed. This letter provides additional information on the incident, describes the steps we are taking in response, and the steps that you may consider to help protect your information.

What Happened

On May 5, 2026, Fragomen learned that an unauthorized third party gained remote access to a single user account, which we determined was part of a social engineering campaign. Upon discovery, we immediately launched an investigation and promptly contained the incident. We also engaged leading cybersecurity experts and notified law enforcement. Our investigation ultimately determined that the unauthorized third party accessed and copied a subset of files. In response, Fragomen launched a comprehensive review of the data involved to identify individuals whose personal information may have been contained in the files.

What Information Was Involved

The data review determined that some of your personal information was contained in the files. The information includes your name and [Extra1].

What We Are Doing

To help prevent a similar occurrence in the future, we have implemented additional security measures designed to further enhance the security of our systems and data. Fragomen also continues to evaluate additional steps that may be taken to further increase its defenses.

As a precaution, we are offering you a complimentary 24-month membership of Experian IdentityWorksSM. This product helps detect possible misuse of your personal information and provides you with identity protection support focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. Experian IdentityWorksSM is completely free to you and enrolling in this program will not affect your credit score.

What You Can Do

For more information on Experian IdentityWorksSM, including instructions on how to activate your complimentary 24-month membership, as well as information on additional steps you can take in response to this incident, please see the pages that follow this letter.

You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting companies.

Free Credit Report. We remind you to be vigilant for incidents of fraud or identity theft by reviewing your account statements and free credit reports for any unauthorized activity. If you identify any unauthorized charges on your financial account statements, you should immediately report any such charges to your financial institution. You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. To order your annual free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll free at 1-877-322-8228. You can also order your annual free credit report by mailing a completed Annual Credit Report Request Form (available from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission's ("FTC") website at www.consumer.ftc.gov) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281.

For Colorado, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, and Vermont residents: You may obtain one or more (depending on the state) additional copies of your credit report, free of charge. You must contact each of the credit reporting agencies directly to obtain such additional report(s).

Security Freeze. Security freezes, also known as credit freezes, restrict access to your credit file, making it harder for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. You can freeze and unfreeze your credit file for free. You also can get a free freeze for your children who are under 16. And if you are someone's guardian, conservator or have a valid power of attorney, you can get a free freeze for that person, too.

How will these freezes work? Contact all three of the nationwide credit reporting agencies – Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. If you request a freeze online or by phone, the agency must place the freeze within one business day. If you request a lift of the freeze, the agency must lift it within one hour. If you make your request by mail, the agency must place or lift the freeze within three business days after it gets your request. You also can lift the freeze temporarily without a fee.

The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue.

Fraud Alerts. A fraud alert tells businesses that check your credit that they should check with you before opening a new account. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

Federal Trade Commission and State Attorneys General Offices. If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your home state. You may also contact these agencies for information on how to prevent or avoid identity theft.
