NOTICE OF DATA <<VARIABLE DATA 1>>

Dear <<Full Name>>:

Shook, Hardy & Bacon L.L.P. ("SHB") is writing to tell you about a recent cyber security incident that involved your personal information. SHB is a full-service, national law firm that acquired your data in connection with providing legal services to one of our clients. We are providing this notice to tell you about the incident, offer complimentary identity monitoring services, and suggest ways that you can protect your information.

What Happened

On October 27, 2026, an SHB employee was targeted by a social engineering attack. As soon as we learned about this incident, we immediately launched an investigation with assistance from nationally recognized third-party cybersecurity and data forensics consultants. We have notified law enforcement and are cooperating with its ongoing investigation. We have determined that on October 27, 2026, an unauthorized actor gained access to the employee's computer and copied a small number of files. We conducted a thorough review of those files to understand: (1) what information was involved; (2) who may have been affected; and (3) where those people reside. On November 3, 2026, we completed that review and began working to provide written notice of this incident.

What Information Was Involved

The affected data included your <<Breached Elements>>.

What We Are Doing About It

Upon detecting the incident, we immediately took steps to contain the threat and commenced a prompt and thorough investigation. Additionally, SHB is taking measures to further strengthen our existing policies relating to data protection while simultaneously hardening our security practices. We will continue to evaluate and modify our practices and internal controls as necessary to enhance the security and privacy of personal information within our possession.

What You Can Do

We recommend that you take the following preventative measures to help protect your information:

1. Enroll in complimentary identity theft protection services through Epiq. Epiq identity protection services include: <<CM Duration>> months of triple bureau credit monitoring, identity theft reimbursement insurance, and identity restoration assistance. With this protection, Epiq will help you resolve issues if your identity is compromised. For more details and to enroll, please review the instructions included at the end of this letter.

2. Remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by regularly reviewing any account statements and free credit reports for unauthorized or suspicious activity. 3. Promptly report any incidents of suspected identity theft to your local law enforcement, state Attorney General, and the major credit bureaus.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT IDENTITY THEFT AND WAYS TO PROTECT YOURSELF

Visit https://www.experian.com/blogs/ask-experian/category/fraud-and-identity-theft/ for general information regarding identity protection. You can obtain additional information about fraud alerts, security freezes, and preventing identity theft from the consumer reporting agencies listed below and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) by calling its identity theft hotline: 877-438-4338; TTY: 1-866-653-4261. They also provide information online at https://consumer.ftc.gov/features/identity-theft. The FTC's address is: Federal Trade Commission, Division of Privacy and Identity Protection, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. You have the ability to place a security freeze on your credit reports by contacting the following agencies.

Obtain Your Credit Report

You should also monitor your credit reports. You may periodically obtain your credit reports from each of the national consumer reporting agencies. In addition, under federal law, you are entitled to one free copy of your credit report every 12 months from each of the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies listed above. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report by going to www.AnnualCreditReport.com or by calling (877) 322-8228. You also may complete the Annual Credit Report Request Form available from the FTC at https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/sites/www.consumer.ftc.gov/files/articles/pdf/pdf-0093-annual-report-request-form.pdf and mail it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281. You may also contact any of the three major consumer reporting agencies to request a copy of your credit report. You may be able to obtain one or more (depending on the state) additional copies of your credit report, free of charge. You must contact each of the credit reporting agencies directly. If you discover inaccurate information or a fraudulent transaction on your credit report, you have the right to request that the consumer reporting agency delete that information from your credit report file.

Fraud Alerts

You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for one year. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any new accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three national credit reporting agencies using the contact information listed above. As soon as one credit bureau confirms the fraud alert, they will notify the others. Additional information is available at www.annualcreditreport.com.

Security Freeze

You have the ability to place a security freeze on your credit report at no cost to you. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you may be able to use an online process, an automated telephone line, or a written request to all three of the credit reporting agencies listed above. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; (5) a legible copy of a government-issued identification card, (6) proof of current address, such as a legible copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement, (7) a legible copy of a recent W-2, pay stub, or Social Security card, and (8) if you are a victim of identity theft, a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. Under federal law, you cannot be charged to place, lift, or remove a security freeze.

After receiving your freeze request, each credit reporting company will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place, you will need it if you choose to lift the freeze. If you place a security freeze prior to enrolling in credit monitoring services, you will need to remove the freeze in order to sign up for the credit monitoring service.

Additional Helpful Information

Even if you do not find any suspicious activity on your initial credit reports, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recommends that you check your credit reports periodically. Checking your credit report periodically can help you spot problems and address them quickly. If you find suspicious activity on your credit reports or have reason to believe your information is being misused, call your local law enforcement agency and file a police report. Be sure to obtain a copy of the police report, as many creditors will want the information it contains to absolve you of the fraudulent debts. You may also file a complaint with the FTC by contacting them at the information provided above. This notice was not delayed as a result of a law enforcement investigation.

If your personal information has been used to file a false tax return, to open an account or to attempt to open an account in your name, or to commit fraud or other crimes against you, you may file a police report in the city in which you currently reside.
